(Short Answer Type Questions)

2. Read the following passage and then answer the questions in your words.

As Nnaemeka walked home that evening he turned over in his mind different ways of overcoming his father's opposition, especially now that his father had gone and found a girl for him. He had thought of showing his letter to Nene but decided on second thoughts not to, at least for the moment. He read it again when he got home and couldn't help smiling to himself. He remembered Ugoye quite well; an Amazon of a girl who used to beat all the boys, himself included, on the way to the stream, a complete dunce at school.

'I have found a girl who will suit you admirably – Ugoye Nweke, the eldest daughter of our neighbour, Jacob Nweke. She has a proper Christian upbringing. When she stopped schooling some years ago, her father (a man of sound judgement) sent her to live in the house of a pastor where she has received all the training a good wife could need. Her Sunday school teacher has told me that she reads her Bible very fluently. I hope we shall begin negotiations when you come home in December.'

On the second evening of his return from Lagos Nnaemeka sat with his father under a cassia tree. This was the old man's retreat when he went to read his Bible when the parching December sun had set and a fresh, reviving wind blew on the leaves.

'Father,' began Nnaemeka suddenly, 'I have come to ask for forgiveness'.

'Forgiveness ? For what, my son?' he asked in amazement.

‘It’s about this marriage question?’

‘Which marriage question?’

‘I can’t we must – I mean it is impossible for me to marry Nweke’s daughter.’

‘Impossible ? Why ?’ asked his father.

‘I don’t love her.’

‘Nobody said you did. Why should you?’ he asked.

‘Marriage today is different.....’

- a) What is the passage all about? 5 × 2
- b) Can you bring out the tension between the father and the son?
- c) Why does Nnaemeka not want to marry Ugoye Nweke ? Explain this with reference to the statement ‘Marriage today is different....’
- d) How is Nnaemeka’s father’s description of Ugoye’s character different from Nnaemeka ?
- e) Can you guess the title and author of the story ?
- f) Write a précis from the given passage giving it a suitable title. 5
